Report

Kashi Institute of Technology, Varanasi celebrated National Education Day on 10th November, 2023 to commemorate birth anniversary of the first Education minister of independence India Abul Kalam Azad.

On this occasion students of various departments along with faculty members visited to Khalispur Village, and created awareness of education among villagers/parents and tell them the importance of sending their ward to school. The students of KIT also interacted with the children in the villages and encourage them that they should go to school every day.
