The gym in our Kashi Institute of Technology campus is a fantastic facility that offers a wide range of equipment and amenities to grab the students' fitness needs. The gym is equipped with useful machines for cardio, strength training, and flexibility exercises. It is open from early morning until late evening, allowing students to work out at their convenience. It is available for students, faculty, and staff, making it accessible to the entire campus community. It is valuable resource for students looking to stay active and maintain their well-being. We can have a look through the captured pictures of our campus gym area.
